

PEDIATRICS NURSING

Aims of Pediatric Nursing

- To provide comprehensive care to infants, children, and adolescents.
 - To promote optimal growth and development of children.
 - To prevent diseases and reduce child morbidity and mortality.
 - To provide family-centered and holistic care.
 - To prepare nurses to manage common and critical pediatric conditions.
-

Objectives of Pediatric Nursing

Child Care Objectives

- To assess, plan, implement, and evaluate nursing care for children.
 - To provide care for sick and healthy children.
 - To monitor growth and developmental milestones.
-

Preventive and Promotive Objectives

- To promote immunization programs and child health services.
 - To prevent diseases like Measles, Polio, and Malnutrition.
 - To educate parents about nutrition, hygiene, and childcare practices.
-

Curative and Rehabilitative Objectives

- To provide treatment and nursing care for acute and chronic illnesses.
 - To assist in diagnostic and therapeutic procedures.
 - To provide rehabilitation for physically and mentally challenged children.
-

Family-Centered Care Objectives

- To involve parents in the care and decision-making process.
 - To provide emotional support to the child and family.
 - To educate parents about home care and follow-up.
-

Educational Objectives

- To develop knowledge and skills in Pediatric Nursing.
 - To enhance clinical skills and critical thinking in child care.
 - To train students in child health management and emergency care.
-

Safety and Development Objectives

- To ensure child safety and injury prevention.
- To support normal physical, mental, and social development.
- To create a child-friendly and therapeutic environment.